

EDMONDS COLLEGE

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS

Executive Board 2025-2026

Mailing Newsletter

3rd October, 2025

Hi Tritons,

Happy Fall Quarter 🍂, I hope you have a nice quarter start. Thank you for stopping by our table and signing up for our email list. It was great meeting you, as we head into the third week of the Fall quarter. Whether you're looking to get involved, join a club, or find a job on campus, there are plenty of opportunities waiting for you! ☀️

Student Government Weekly Board Meeting 📅 🏛️

Don't forget to join us on Wednesday for our weekly Executive Board Meeting! This is a great chance to hear what's happening on campus and get involved in shaping student life. Everyone is welcome to join and share their ideas!

- When: Wednesdays, 3:00 PM–5:00 PM
- Where: Triton Student Center (Brier Hall), Room 244

Student Government Hiring (2025-2026): Apply Now – Priority Deadline is Sunday! 🇺🇸

Looking to grow your leadership skills and be a voice for students? The Student Government is now currently looking for passionate and dedicated students to fill our open Diversity representative position (Executive Officer for Diversity) and become a member of the Executive Board team. Diversity is an extremely important role and an exciting opportunity to advocate for inclusion, equity and representation within the Edmonds community. If you are interested in making a meaningful impact. Here's a link for your cover letter, resume and unofficial transcript through the online application. Don't forget Application Deadline on Sunday October 5th, 2025. Don't miss your chance to be considered —submit your application as soon as possible!

- Learn more and apply here: Student Government Application Form
- Questions? Contact us at: asec\_comrel@edmonds.edu

Classroom Visits Are Back ! 🙌

Student Government Classroom Visits -- Every quarter, the Student Government does classroom visits to all faculty who provide the Student Government with their class times and days. We take this chance to introduce the Student Government and connect the students to opportunities to get involved. Some ways you can get involved include joining a club, volunteering at events, and serving on a committee. These opportunities are great leadership learning activities and you can use it in your CV. We're always looking for more people to be on our committees, if you are interested please feel free to come to our office at CSEL Office on the second floor of Triton Student Center. or email any one of us. We have another round of classroom visits next week so if you are in one of those classrooms, we're excited to visit them.

- More information & question contact us at: asec\_academ@edmonds.edu

Love Math but struggle with English? Join Quant Club!

Are you interested in math but find it difficult due to the language barriers? No worries, we're here to help!! Let me introduce you to the new club "Quant Club". The purpose of the Quant Club is to promote interest in mathematics and to support students who may struggle with their math classes due to English. We also aim to attend math symposiums or conferences to explore how mathematics is applied across different fields. Additionally, we will host fun events such as "Let's Taco About Mathematics", where students can enjoy solving math problems with tacos and snacks.

- a. Learn more and apply here: Quant Club Application.
- b. Instagram page: Quant Club Instagram Page

Celebrate Mid-Autumn Festival With Us

The Mid-Autumn Festival is coming up on October 8th, 12 - 3 PM at Triton Student Center. Come and join us for lantern-making, festive decorations, and delicious mooncakes as we celebrate the Mid-Autumn Festival together. Enjoy traditions like the full moon and Jade Rabbit, and take home your own handmade lantern. Don't miss this joyful celebration of food, light, and togetherness!

Student Leadership Conference--Recap

In early September, 17 Edmonds college students and three supervisors had the amazing opportunities to represent our campus at the annual Student Leadership Conference hosted by Green River College. This conference brought student leaders from all over Washington State to connect, share ideas, share experiences and build new skills through an insightful training session . This conference was more than just learning, it was beyond the surface that we could see. It was also about sharing stories and seeing how students at other colleges are making a difference. We're excited to see how these leaders will take what they learned and make Edmonds College better! Such an honor to have Mr. Afnan Ali to share his experiences here:

“The conference was a great experience overall. The most valuable part for me were the education sessions, where we could choose topics based on our role and interests. One session on running board meetings effectively gave me practical skills that will help me as a student leader.

Not to make anyone jealous, but the desserts were also amazing :)”

That’s all for this week. As always, feel free to reach out if you have any questions or ideas, we’re here for you. Have a great rest of your week! 🍁

Best regards,
Bun Bee Lim