DO I NEED A MATH PLACEMENT?

If you plan to take a math class or a class that has a math prerequisite (for example many of the science, engineering, or computer science classes) you need to have a math placement.

There are several ways to get a math placement. You can use any of the following:

- Final grade from most recent high school math class.
- SBA math score.
- IB math score.
- PSAT/SAT test.
- AP math grade.
- Take a Math assessment at the college.
