COLLEGE

Welcome to Edmonds College's 57th Commencement Ceremony

Dr. Amit B. Singh, President of Edmonds College

Congratulations, Edmonds College Class of 2024! Through hard work and dedication, you are poised and powerful and ready to leave an indelible mark in your community. You have weathered many challenging storms in an unpredictable world that could have steered you off course, but you persevered. You have remained resolute and have reached a significant milestone that marks a life-changing accomplishment.

Education can change your future. Today's commencement is not the end of your journey. It marks the beginning. What you do from this day forward will help build a proud legacy for you and your family.

I encourage you never to stop learning. Share your knowledge and help build a stronger community. You are equipped to make a difference, and I believe in each of you. We will always be in your corner, and I encourage you to utilize our Career Action Center and other campus resources as you launch into your next adventure.

Congratulations, graduates! We are all rooting for you!

Dr. Amit B. Singh

Land Acknowledgement

We acknowledge the Coast Salish Tribes, Bands and First Nations people including the Snohomish, Duwamish, Tulalip, Suquamish, Snoqualmie and many others and their successors, as the original inhabitants of the land where Edmonds College sits and where the diverse communities we serve live, study, and work. Since time immemorial, the Coast Salish peoples have hunted, fished, gathered, and taken care of these lands. We respect their sovereignty, their right to self-determination, and honor their sacred spiritual connection with the land and water. We will strive to be honest about our past mistakes and bring about a future of inclusive indigenous partnerships that includes their families, stories, and voices to form a more just and equitable society.

This acknowledgment only becomes meaningful when combined with accountable relationships and informed actions that support student success and community engagement. This is a first step in acknowledging our history, honoring this land, and sustaining our ongoing relations with Indigenous peoples.

Session A Speakers

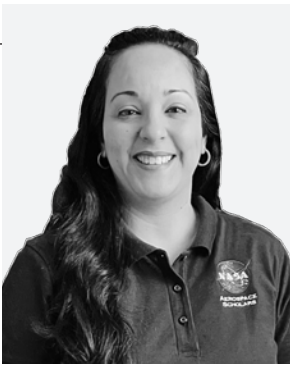

Dariga Rakhat

Dariga is graduating with an Associate in Engineering and plans on transferring to a four-year institution this fall. She was one of three Edmonds College recipients of the All-Washington Scholarship and was recognized as a top-16 selection among all 34 technical and community colleges in the state. While at Edmonds, Dariga served as the president of the chess club, vice president of the robotics club, secretary of the rocketry club, member of the Society of Women Engineers club, and member of the cross country team. She also volunteers at the Lynnwood Food Bank and numerous campus events. Dariga would like to thank her parents, Gulnar and Rakhat, for helping her on her journey, as well as her triplet siblings, sister Aigerim and brother Ali.

Jacqueline Resto

Jacqueline earned an associate degree in environmental science and business communication at Edmonds College and has moved on to the University of Washington, where she will major in earth system science, specializing in geographic information systems (GIS). Her goal is to become a GIS analyst to help combat climate change. During her time at Edmonds, Jacqueline was a three-time NASA intern, a member of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society, received the STEM Award and Mathematics, Engineering, Science, Achievement (MESA) Superhero Award, and volunteered with the Green Team, MESA, Relationships in Science Education (RiSE), Washington State Elementary School District, YMCA, and Red Cross. She is grateful for the support of her family: Alexander (husband), Adelynn & Ayden (children), Elida (mother), Gerald Jr. (brother), and Shayraliz (best friend).

Session B Speakers

Emily Nguyen

After receiving her associate degree from Edmonds College in 2019 and working five years in the dental field, Emily returned to college and is a member of the first cohort to receive their Bachelor of Applied Science in Integrated Healthcare Management. Her ultimate goal is to become a dentist or dental hygienist. Emily would like to thank her parents and family back in Vietnam for their support and her husband's endless encouragement. She would also like to thank her teachers and classmates for being by her side for the last two years.

Kristina Spencer

Kristina, a testament to dedication, earned her certificate in project management while juggling a full-time role as a program coordinator for the Safe Child and Adolescent Network at Seattle Children's Hospital. Her expertise also extends to real estate, where she specializes in working with seniors in the Mountlake Terrace and south Snohomish County areas. Kristina would like to thank her family, including her husband Adam, children Barley, Anisten, and Ramsey, and her dad and mother-in-law. She also acknowledges her colleagues at Seattle Children's Hospital, and special friends June Anderson and Mary Kaercher for their unwavering support.

Honors List

Students who wear a gold honor cord have demonstrated outstanding academic achievement by earning a cumulative GPA of 3.8 or higher in courses completed through winter quarter at Edmonds College.

Members of Phi Theta Kappa, recognized as the official honor society for community colleges by the American Association of Community Colleges, may wear a gold tassel or a yellow-gold stole, indicating they have at least a 3.8 grade point average.

Additional Commencement Ornamentation

College departments, programs, or clubs may develop and request approval for a standard recognition symbol or ornament (e.g., pin, tassel, stole) that graduates may wear on their cap or gown during the commencement ceremony.

Graduates who are members of the college's veterans club, the Edmonds College Student Veterans Association, will be wearing red, white, and blue cords.

Academic Dress

The academic dress worn by the faculty originates from the Middle Ages, when faculty and students wore caps and gowns to stay warm in cold buildings. The distinctive dress, worn daily in American universities until after the Civil War, served to set the scholars apart from fellow citizens and led to the phrase “town and gown.” Such regalia is still worn today by faculty and students in some European universities.

The type of gown and hood distinguishes the wearer by level, academic major, and college or university. The master’s gown is made with long, closed sleeves. The doctoral gown has longer sleeves than the master’s gown, is faced with black velvet from the hem to the neck and back, and contains velvet chevrons on the sleeves.

The doctoral hood is longer than the master’s hood. The colors on the inside of a hood relate to the college or university. For example, the University of Washington’s colors are purple and gold and Washington State University’s colors are crimson and silver. The color of the velvet on the hood depicts the academic specialization as follows:

- Agriculture – Maize
- Arts (Liberal Arts), Letters (Literature), Humanities – White
- Commerce, Accountancy, Business – Drab
- Dentistry – Lilac
- Economics – Copper
- Education – Light Blue
- Engineering – Orange
- Fine Arts, Architecture – Brown
- Forestry, Environmental Studies, Sustainability – Russet
- Journalism – Crimson
- Law – Purple
- Library Science, Information Science – Lemon
- Medicine – Green
- Music – Pink
- Nursing – Apricot
- Oratory, Communications Studies, Broadcasting – Silver Gray
- Pharmacy – Olive Green
- Philosophy – Dark Blue
- Physical Education, Manual Therapy, Physical Therapy – Sage Green
- Public Administration, Public Policy, Foreign Service – Peacock Blue
- Public Health – Salmon
- Science (Social, Natural and Formal) – Golden Yellow
- Social Work – Citron
- Theology, Divinity – Scarlet
- Veterinary Science – Grey

Louella Cook, Xiang Gao, and Dariga Rakhat Recognized on All-Washington Academic Team

Louella Cook

Xiang Gao

Dariga Rakhat

Louella Cook, Xiang Gao, and Dariga Rakhat were honored as members of the 2024 All-Washington (All-WA) Academic Team during a ceremony at South Puget Sound Community College in April. The ceremony recognized students from the state's 34 community and technical colleges.

Rakhat is among the top 16 All-Washington Scholarship recipients and received an additional $750 from WSECU. She is graduating with an Associate in Engineering and will enroll at a four-year institution this fall. She is the president of the chess club, vice president of the robotics club, secretary of the rocketry club, a member of the Society of Women Engineers club, and participated on the cross country team. She also volunteers at the Lynnwood Food Bank and numerous campus events.

Over the last five years, Cook has overcome homelessness, addiction, and a physical disability to excel in the classroom and become a leader in the community. She has been an impactful speaker at diversion centers, managed a clean and sober facility, and mentored women in their recovery journey and people with substance use disorders. She has also selflessly served others experiencing homelessness. She is earning her Associate in Addiction Studies and enrolling in the Child, Youth, and Families Studies BAS program this fall.

Gao is an honor roll student in construction management and hopes to be a project manager with a general contracting firm. He won the 2023 CMAA (Construction Management Association of America) scholarship and is an official in the Construction Management Student Association (CMSA). He graduated from Tsinghua University and headed E-business sales for a Chinese company. He has also worked for i9 Sports, where he volunteered as a youth football coach and helped prepare food at local homeless shelters.
